SPIRITUAL AIMS THOUGHT FOR THE WORK WEEK

I believe that by sharing this life, we can be happy. I believe that life is to be lived each day to the fullest degree that I can live it. I believe that I am a source of life to all of those who love me. I believe that my life is a special gift from God, and I shall daily thank Him for the gift of life. I believe that I should always be open to newness in my life and to all sources of growth that come into my life. I believe that each person who touches my life in any way is a source of new life to me.

MONDAY MORNING

We had 17 members along with two guests at our Monday meeting. Joining us were our guest speaker Melissa Winchell and Sharon’s husband, Gene. Gary Miller announced that we had a successful Inter-Club to the Evening Club last week to hear Congressman Tom Petri. “Happy Bucks” were offered by Bonnie Baerwald for the Packers’ SuperBowl win and also for the MPTC Awards Banquet this week while Steve Millin offered up a $1 for the UW Badger basketball win over Michigan State, also on Sunday. Gary Ring reminded everyone that next Monday’s meeting will be on the Road to the Grief Relief Center (see article at right). Gary Miller drew the four of spades in the 50/50 Raffle, not a winner but that’s one less card in the deck for the next drawing.

MELISSA WINCHELL CIRCLE K

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

Melissa Winchell is the current President of the UW-Oshkosh Circle K Club and she joined us on Monday morning to tell us about her recent trip to Liberty City, Florida for a week of Habitat for Humanity building. Melissa is originally from Princeton but was not exposed to the Kiwanis Family until she got to UW-Oshkosh. She has been a member of Circle K for her four years at UW-O having held the offices of Secretary, Vice President and now President. Melissa’s trip to Florida was organized through the UW-Eau Claire Circle K Club. Melissa hooked up with the group in Beloit where the 46 students departed in nine vans for the 30 hour ride to Liberty City, Florida. Liberty City has a population of approximately 32,000 residents located in Key Largo. Habitat for Humanity was building five houses during the first week of January when Melissa and her 45 Circle K colleagues were volunteering. Melissa was lucky to stay mostly at one house during her week of being a carpenter. The future owners of the Habitat Homes need to have a $1,500 down payment and be willing to put in sweat equity hours in order to qualify for one of the Habitat Homes. Their remaining loan is a no interest mortgage so affordability of these homes is a reality for the owners. Melissa also told us about some of their off hours fun while in Florida.
